

Gili Elkin
General Partner
Israel – Colorado Innovation Fund

Gili is a General Partner of Israel – Colorado Innovation Fund, investing in Israeli startups in the water/energy/transportation sectors and connecting them with the US market through Innosphere, a leading technology incubator in Colorado. The ICI Fund's current focus is cyber security solutions for critical infrastructures and for transportation. Gili is active in promoting the business collaboration between Israel and Colorado by facilitating the conversation between two governments. She has initiated the Israel – US Water Initiative – a platform that accelerates the import of Israeli water technologies to the US with the goal to help US water utilities face the challenges of water scarcity.

Gili serves on the Board of Directors of the B'nai B'rith of the Rockies as Vice President. Previously, Gili was the Managing Director of SynTech Bioenergy, a waste-to-energy company located in Colorado. Gili is an Israeli lawyer, worked at Naschitz Brandes, ADV., a leading Israeli law firm, consulted at Ernst & Young to global venture capital firms investing in Israeli companies and was the founder and CEO of wordprom.com. She has served at the Israeli Defense Forces in a classified unit. Gili earned her LLB and BA (in Law and Business) from the Hebrew University of Jerusalem and her MBA from the Graduate School of Business, Stanford University.