Directions

To the Marcus Family Campus

By train

- Take the train to Beer Sheva. Disembark the train at “Beer-Sheva North/University” station (this is the first of two stops in Beer-Sheva). Upon exiting the station, turn right onto the “Mexico Bridge” which leads to the Marcus Family Campus. (For on campus directions see map below). The train journey takes about 55 minutes (from Tel Aviv).
- For the train schedule, visit Israel Railways website:
<http://www.rail.co.il/EN/Pages/HomePage.aspx>

By car

From Tel-Aviv (the journey should take about 1 hour 10 minutes, depending on traffic)

If using WAZE to direct you to the Campus, enter the address as: Professor Khayim Khanani Street, Be'er Sheva.

Toll free road:

- Head south on the Ayalon Highway (Route #20), stay in the left lane.
- When you see a sign for "Holon/Bat Yam" continue straight.
- Merge onto Highway #4 to Ashdod.
- Almost immediately after the Ashdod exit is the exit for Beer Sheva. You will connect to route #41.
- Follow the signs to Beer-Sheva until you get to a T-junction (Gedera) where you will turn right onto route #40.
- Take route #40 all the way to Beer-Sheva. The entrance to the city is a very large four-way junction. (Note that at Goral Junction, route #40 turns to route # 406 for those continuing straight to Beer Sheva).
- Continue straight and at the 5th traffic light (they are numbered) turn left. You have reached the University Gate.

Via Road 6, a toll road:

- On the Ayalon Highway (Route #20), take the exit to Jerusalem (Route #1).
- After 20 kilometers (12 ½ miles), at “Ben-Shemen” interchange, Route #1 and Route #6 merge.
- At Daniel interchange, continue on Route #6. When route #6 ends, it connects to route #40. Take route #40 all the way to Beer-Sheva. (Note that at Goral Junction, route #40 turns to route # 406 for those continuing straight to Beer Sheva). The entrance to the city is a very large four-way junction.
- Continue straight, and at the 5th traffic light (they are numbered), turn left. You have reached the University Gate.

From Jerusalem (the journey should take about 1 hour 30 minutes, depending on traffic):

- Take Route #1 to “Ben-Shemen” interchange, where Route #1 and Route #6 merge.
- At Daniel interchange, continue on Route #6. When route #6 ends, it connects to route #40. Take route #40 all the way to Beer-Sheva. The entrance to the city is a very large four-way junction. (Note that at Goral Junction, route #40 turns to route # 406 for those continuing straight to Beer Sheva). The entrance to the city is a very large four-way junction.
- Continue on straight and at the 5th traffic light (they are numbered), turn left to the University.

Parking:

- If you are arriving at the Marcus Family Campus by private car, please contact your visit coordinator to arrange for a vehicle entrance and parking permit. The permits require vehicle details such as car model and make, color and license plate number, so be sure to have this information available.
- Once you pass through the gate/security check, go to the visitor's parking lot.
- Please be aware that you may be asked to show some form of identification.
